

About Us

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 20 June 2008
Last Updated Monday, 21 July 2008

The Small Business Development Center Human Capital Program is a specialty center for the University of Texas at San Antonio's Institute of Economic. The Human Capital Program provides research, training and consultation for Small businesses on a wide range of human resource issues including:

- Drug Free Workplace - policy development, supervisor and employee training, bilingual online policy resource information
- Employment Issues - policies and procedures, hiring and rightful termination, unemployment rate reduction techniques, performance development, workforce development, harassment, violence and security in the workplace
- Safety Issues - bilingual supervisor and employee training, safety plan development, audits
- Workers Compensation Training and Information
- Customized training

The Human Capital Program provides a holistic approach to creating a safe, fair and legal work environment for employees, supervisors and managers/owners of small businesses.
Institute for Economic Development at University of Texas- San Antonio Small Business Development Center Human Capital Program 501 West Durango Boulevard
San Antonio, TX 78207
(210) 458-2430

Program Director - Linda Ramirez

Project Manager - Deirdre Pattillo

Website Creative/Technical Production - George Marez, A.A.A.

Technical Writing Staff -Faith Hinchman